The screenshot shows the Meetup.com interface for the 'The East Bay WordPress Meetup Group'. At the top, the Meetup logo is on the left, and navigation links for 'Start a new group 30% OFF', 'Explore', 'Messages', and 'Notifications' are on the right. The main header features a large group photo of a city with a bay, a 'Change photo' button, and the WordPress logo. To the right of the photo, the group name 'The East Bay WordPress Meetup Group' is displayed, along with its location 'Oakland, CA', '1,279 members · Public group', and 'Organized by WordPress and 3 others'. Below the photo, a horizontal menu includes 'About', 'Events', 'Members', 'Photos', 'Discussions', and 'More'. To the right of this menu are buttons for 'Manage group' and 'Create event'. The 'About' section is expanded, showing the text: 'What we're about' and 'Every month the East Bay WordPress Meetup brings together both newbies and experts to talk about everything WordPress. This meetup is mainly for...'. The 'Organizers' section lists 'WordPress and 3 others' with a 'Message' link.

MEETUP ORGANIZER HA

Welcome

Meetup groups are locally-organized groups that get together for face-to-face events on a regular basis (commonly once a month).

Anything that brings together 2 or more people to share their WordPress experiences counts — there's no minimum number of attendees or required format.

These events (commonly referred to as meetups, which can be confusing since people often use the same word to describe a group itself) take many formats:

- presentations/lecture series,
- hackathons,
- social gatherings,
- workshops,
- co-working,
- running a WordPress help desk,
- contributor sprints/drives, and others.

WordPress

Meet other local fans of WordPress, the Internet's classiest and fastest dynamic content management system. Gather and discuss the best ways to work with your software.

What these workshops can do

What are we looking for?

Example from WordCamp Riverside

- Gutenberg
- Themes
- Plugins
- Design
- UI / UX
- Site Performance
- Blogging/Writing
- API
- WP as a Headless CMS
- WooCommerce
- Deployment
- Security/Privacy
- SEO
- Marketing
- Accessibility
- The Future of WordPress
- Future of the Web (technology, standards)
- The WordPress Community
- WordPress' impact on the open web
- Third parties, browsers, operating systems, etc.

Who Should Apply?

You! It doesn't matter if this will be your first public speaking experience or if you're an experienced public speaker. WordCamp Riverside speaker applications are open to anyone with a passion for WordPress.

Remember you're among friends

- WordCamp attendees know speakers are volunteers and don't expect perfection.
- WordCamp is an informal affair. Business attire is optional.
- You're speaking among professionals like yourself.
- Most importantly, a session is only 30-45 minutes long.

Dispelling The Myths

Myth 1

I'm not an expert!

Myth 2

People will ask questions I can't answer, and I'll look like a fool.

Myth 3

I'm too nervous to speak!

Myth 4

I have failed if everyone in the audience isn't totally engaged.

Myth 5

A talk followed by a Q&A is the only format I can use to share my knowledge.

Why haven't you spoken?

Discussion

- What are things you're worried about?
- Why haven't you talked at a meetup or WordCamp?
- If you only talked once, why did you not do it again?

Why do you want to speak?

Let's talk about it

Why do you want to speak?

- Be seen as an authority in your field
- Share your knowledge with others
- Build your confidence
- Give back to the community
- Meet people – be part of the community
- Travel
- Learn at conferences – speaking teaches you more
- It's fun!
- Rewarding, feeling of accomplishment
- Career building
- Be a role model for <group>

Exercise

Brainstorm

Brainstorm

Brainstorm as many topic ideas as you can in 15 minutes.

We're not looking for "perfect" or even "good" ideas. The idea is just to get them out, good, bad or ugly. See if you can get 30 or 40 ideas.

Seriously, anything that comes to mind.

Exercise

Topic Selection

Topic Selection

Pick 2 topics that you don't know a lot about but have had some success with.

This could be a story-based talk.

Topic Selection

Pick 2 topics you may not know much about but would have good questions for.

This could be for moderating a panel.

Topic Selection

Pick 2 topics that you are confident about and could lead a how-to presentation.

Topic Selection

Pick 2 topics that you've successfully worked on that you feel you could do a case study about.

Topic Selection

Pick 2 subjects in the topic list that are your favorite.

Topic Selection

Pick 2 topics that you think you could teach to others in a hands-on manner.

This could be a workshop.

Exercise

Pick a single topic
& refine

Pick a single topic & refine

Of the topics, is there one that you are especially passionate about?

To further refine your topic, apply “Who, What, Why, How, When, Where” to your topic.

Eg:

If you have a favorite plugin, you can try asking...

Who is this plugin for?

What does this plugin do?

Why was this plugin created?

How does it work?

When would you use it?

Where would you use it?

- Present your title and pitch

Example of a good pitch

Responsify All The Things

In our new web multiverse, it's more important than ever to make your valuable content available to all users, regardless of how they access your site. In this talk, we'll cover how Responsive Web Design came about, the latest RWD news and trends, and some basic (and not so basic) techniques you can use to make your next WordPress theme a responsive one. Intended for developers and designers who aren't afraid to get their hands dirty with a little code.

Tailor your pitch

Consider the tone

Vocabulary

Different “hooks” or “points of interest”

6 important points

(Source: http://weareallaweso.me/for_speakers/how-to-write-a-compelling-proposal.html)

Point 1

Direct the proposal to the attendees, not the curators

Point 2

Be specific about the focus your talk will have

Point 3

Pose the question your talk will answer

Point 4

Make your point as succinctly as you can

Point 5

Use proper grammar,
spelling, and punctuation

Point 6

Have your proposal reviewed by someone with experience

Great title

Great title

- Catchy but explanatory
- Beware of too-clever titles
- Title that can stand alone

Writing The Outline (introduction, body, and conclusion)

Introduction

Be clear what it's about

What are you going to cover?

Why does it matter?

Pique interest — what is your hook?

Who is it aimed at?

Be succinct!

Introduction

Don't apologize or insult yourself

Don't spend 10 minutes talking about your resume.

Start with a relevant story

Summarize what you'll cover

Ask a friend to introduce you.

Body

Write down some main topics or story headings

What is the main point you want to get across?

What are some examples, or supporting points that go to illustrate your main point? What would be a logical flow?

Refer to the 5 W's that was used to refine your topic

If you have a favorite plugin, you can try asking...

Who is this plugin for?

What does this plugin do?

Why was this plugin created?

How does it work?

When would you use it?

Where would you use it?

Conclusion

Summarize

“So What?”

Review main points

Throw to friend or colleague

The Smarty-Pants

"I think we're going to have to move on now because time is running out and I really want to get a few more questions in."

Unrelated questions

"That's a good question, but it's outside of the scope of what we're talking about. I'd be happy to answer it for you privately after."

Silence

Give friends or colleagues questions to ask

"Something I didn't go into in depth in the talk, but that you might be wondering about, is..." or "A question I've had come up before is..."

Ask the audience a question
